Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a letter or document, written on aged, yellowed paper. The text is arranged in approximately 10 lines, with some lines being longer than others. The ink is dark and the handwriting is fluid. There are two prominent dark spots, possibly holes or stains, on the right side of the page. The paper shows signs of wear and discoloration.

[illegible]

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. The script is dense and fills most of the page, with some lines showing signs of fading or wear. The text appears to be a continuous narrative or record, possibly related to a legal or administrative matter, given the use of terms like "procurator" and "procurator's office" in some of the legible fragments. The handwriting is characteristic of the 17th or 18th century.
